I recognize that the curse of the Lord is a judgment from God himself. I recognize the curse of the Lord produces THORNS AND SWEAT in a man's life. THORNS represent PAIN AND HURT. SWEAT represents STRUGGLES, FRUSTRATION, VEXATION AND SORROW. A curse is a judgment and a declaration that pursues you until it has come to pass. I therefore pray for the blessing through the mercies of God. Let His mercies come to me instead of His judgments. Every malevolent or judgmental spell, pronouncement, or magical action intended to bring about harm, misfortune, or undesirable negative outcomes is hereby rendered ineffective, neutralized, negated, or turned back by my prayers for mercies, by my obedience, my offerings, so that its intended harm is mitigated, redirected and reversed. I therefore plead for mercies today! Let thy mercies come to me. Let a blessing of God's mercies happen in my life. As blind Bartimaeus cried “thou son of David have mercy on me” so also we cry for you to have mercy on us. We are suffering like blind Bartimaeus under many curses.
